Disclaimer

NOTE: Animal Communication is not a replacement for good veterinary care; I am not a vet and so cannot diagnose illness. What I can do is describe and show the symptoms the animal tells me which can assist your vet.

The veterinary surgery act 1966 prohibits anyone other than a qualified veterinary surgeon from diagnosing ailments.

The protection of animal's act 1911 requires that if an animal clearly needs treatment from a veterinary surgeon the owner must obtain this.

The recipient must make his or her own evaluation of information received.
